The post of Young Poet Laureate

The appointed Young Poet Laureates will serve as young ambassadors for poetry in their region and inspire a new generation of poets and creatives. This is a valued and active role that offers exciting opportunities and requires a level of commitment.

Teachers should ensure that students understand what the role involves before entering, and that, as Laureates, they should be ready to take on the role with enthusiasm and a willingness to participate in events, commissions and other activities throughout their term.

As part of the role, Young Poet Laureates will have the opportunity to:

- Champion poetry as an artform
- Share their poetry and write commissions
- Attend performance opportunities
- Engage with their local community

The young poets will be appointed officially week commencing 8 June and they remain in post for one year following their appointments (8 June 2026 to July 2027).
